PRESIDENT ISSUES A CALL FOR THE FIRST GATHERING.

BOARD OF TRADE HOLD MEETING AT CITY HALL TO HEAR REPORT OF COMMITTEE ON BYLAWS.

The first meeting of the Daytona board of trade will be held at the city hall next Friday evening, the given by the Gazette-News, ancall for this session having been nouncement of which was made in issued by President F. M. Rowe, according to instructions given at the time of adjournment of the mass meeting at which the board was formed last week.

The purpose of the meeting Friday evening is to hear the report of the committee on bylaws, which has prepared a set of rules and constitution for the new organization, consider, discuss and adopt a set of laws with which to be governed and under which the body may work.

It is important that all those who subscribed to the membership roll at the mass meeting last week should be present at the first meeting of the board Friday evening and all others who desire to be classed as "live ones" and are ready to help boost the city should also be present. The meeting will be an interesting one and everybody will have a voice in the forming of the rules which shall govern the organization in the fact must be apparent to the most superficial observer. With such lavish wealth of natural beauty it became an easy thing for the hand of tran to give the finishing touches which have wrought out the colors and outlines of the big picture.

Man did all this in the laying out of the streets with their wide margins of parkage. The entire city becomes a great park, with driveways interserting, miles upon miles of driveways so good as to attract motorists from all over the continent.

And as for the pavements, pavements that look and act like granite -where else between the eastern and western seas are so many miles in proportion to inhabitants? The pavement question stands with the street as one of the chief drawing cards. Till some unheard of place reports more and better, Daytona throws down the gauntlet to the Squirrels, Flowers, Birds and Fruit. Whatever one's shortcomings and however indifferent or even callous one may be to many things, the mere mention of "flowers and squirrels, birds and fruits" will send a thrill that is reflected in distended pupils and pricked ears.

For every visitor with a spare goober there is a bunny ready to come and accept your gift. He will sit bolt pright and knaw into the meat, casting furtive, saucy glances at you meanwhile in one yard roses of varigated hues predominate; another household has a penchant for the poincetta and the premises are aflame; another is hidden in a jungle of tall cane. Variety s the spice of life and here is where you find it.

The birds flit in, and with their joyous notes help to give fullness and symmetry to the picture.

As for fruits, choice citrus fruits, Daytona vields the palm to none for quality and quantity per acre. There are scores of citrus groves in proxmity to the city, branches bending to the earth with their burdens of lucious gelden globes, which for teauty, proflicacy and all desirable qualities would truly astonish you.

The Fastest Autos and The Finest

The seventh world wonder, do you ask? Come, whether from Missour. or from Maine, from Kalamazoo o. Timbucto, and you will be "shown." Here is where the world's record for speed is broken with every recurring season. Autos, the biggest, the fast est, and the finest are on daily parade and the big show is as free as the pure artesian water from the thousands of flowing wells. It is a continuous show with a constantly shifting scene.

Everything goes, from a 2-horse power up to a 200-horse power, and all degrees of speed from a canter to a two-mile-a-minute clip. You will probably catch the spirit, when you do the roads and the beach are yours. The Florida sunshine is free, the balmy ocean breezes are free, the birds and squirrels and flowers are free, the sparkling fountain water is free and you will have to go down into your wallet only for coin for auto, and bed and board.

This is no fanciful picture, it's all here. It is drawing other thousands and ho'ding them enthralled, it will charm and hold you. Come and see.

DELAND. Volusia County. is situated 23 miles southwest of Daytona and is reached from the latter city by an excellent hard-surface road recently constructed. At DeLand is located the John B Stetson University, one of the leading educational institutions of the South. Because of the interest in matters educational DeLand is known Stetson University has a faculty of 50 professors and instructors. There are over $400,000 in buildings and equipment; nearly $300,000 endowment; a Carnegie Library alone representing an investment in building. endowment and books, of more than $120,000. The library is the United States Government depository for the State of Florida, and contains over 15,000 volumes. Science Hall, one of the newest of 16 buildings, with its furnishings, represents an outlay of $60,000. Elizabeth Hall is one of the most beautiful college buildings in the South.

The city has a population of about 3,500, with a thickly settled country adjacent. DeLand proper is five miles east of the St. Johns River, on the high, rolling pine land of the great "Orange Ridge" of Florida.

The predominating products are oranges and grapefruit, the estimated crop from this vicinity being over 300,000 boxes this year. Grapes, peaches, pears, Japan persimmon plums, pecans, guavas, strawberries and other fruits are grown in plenty.

In the way of public improvements are many miles of fine shell roads, an excellent high school, electric lights, a system of waterworks that is owned and operated by the city, supplying the purest water at little cost.

Nine houses of worship testify that DeLand is a church-going community. Baptists, Episcopalians, Methodists (Northern and Southern), Presbyterians, Christians and Catholics, besides colored Baptists and Methodists, are represented.

The graded school offers a ten years' course, and the building which it occupies is newly furnished throughout, and is one of the most commodious and best equipped public schools in the State.

The trip from Daytona to DeLand is made by automobile in a little over an hour, and there are many pretty drives in the vicinity of the county site. A good road leads to DeLeon Springs, five miles, a historic spot, where 60,000 gallons of water bubble from the earth every minute.

From DeLand automobiles go south to Osteen, 18 miles, on shell and marl roads; the St. Johns is crossed by ferry near Osteen and cars can then continue to Sanford and Orlando by hard road. There is a shell road from DeLand to Orange City, five miles, and a good road from DeLand to Lake Helen, a like distance.

ORANGE CITY

The principal attraction around Orange City is the many handsome golden orange groves. The town is supplied with water said to be the purest in the world, another attraction to visitors. PORT ORANGE No one of Daytona's attractions, perhaps, commands more nearly universal attention and praise than does the artistic cottages. The owners of these charming villas hail from every corner of the country and they bring their own architectural plans and build upon them, and, as the archilecture of one section of the country differs from the architecture of another so do our homes differ in outward appearance and structural beauty from one another. There are no monotonous rows of strikingly similar build'ugs but the eye, as it sweeps by, is treated to a kaleidoscopic change which keeps the mind wondering, "What next?"

It is not only the exterior of many of these homes which rivets attention; withit they are models of convenience, and the finishing and furnishing give evidence of the elegance and cultivation of those who worked arrangement and artistic furnishing and snading, more than the exterior appearance that gives a surpassing charm to Daytona homes. This feature justly merits profilinence as another wonder. Streets and Pavements the Most and Best.

Let the gate be on the other side and let them knock, and if they say that they want to come in to this country to do a certain work let us look at the map and see WHERE THAT PARTICULAR KIND OF WORK

If the knocker says he can dig, all well and good; let us send him somewhere that a DIGGER is needed. But, on the other hand, if he says he can write in a ledger, let us say to him no, WE HAVE ENOUGH HERE ALREADY WHO CAN WRITE IN LEDGERS.

When I was abroad and witnessed as in one particular case the fruits of one tenant farmer's toil-namely, a bag of wheat, which was his SHARE OF A YEAR'S WORK-my heart cried out:

"Open the gates and let them in."

But when I was on this side of the water and considered the case of the murder of Petrosini and thought of the supineness of the Sicilians, the connivance and weakness behind the act, an act which baffled the police of two continents to discover the perpetrators, then my heart cried out to CLOSE THE GATES.

His knowledge of the fact came about by a happening of the sort which we call chance. On his mother's birthday, when he was a man of twenty-six, he took her a pair of stockings which he had seen in a shop window, labeled "Silk, the newest fashion."

COLOR BLINDNESS.

"Thee has bought me a pair of grand hose, John," said the mother, "but what made thee fancy such a bright color? Why, I can never show myself at meeting in them."

John was much disconcerted, but he told her that he considered the stockings to be of a very proper go to meeting color, as they were a dark

"Why, they're as red as a cherry,

John," was her astonished reply. Neither be nor his brother Jonathan could see anything but drab in the stockings, and they rested in the belief that the good wife's eyes were out of order until she, having consulted various neighbors, returned with the verdict, "Varra fine stuff, but uncommon scarlety."

The consequence was that John Dalton became the first to direct the attention of the scientific world to the subject of color blindness.

The Poor Man.

A man sent to an insane asylum with a load of coal found on his arrival the gates were open, but not knowing where to deposit the fuel he left his horse and cart outside while he went to inquire. He walked about the grounds, but failed to see any one. so made his way back to the gates. but to his horror found they were closed. He tried in vain to open them and appealed to passersby to help him, as the horse and cart belonged to him. "Fancy." said one passerby to another, "that poor man thinks he is a carter."

TEW SMYRNA is situated fif-HOWE teen miles south of Daytona and is an ideal spot reached from Daytona by a hard surface road winding through one of the most picturesque parts of Florida. With its ancient ruins dating back to a time when the history of man runneth not, interlaced with wires of the modern telegraph and tele-phone, its miles of shell streets as hard and smooth as a floor and overarched by hoary forest giants that grew in stately grandeur during the lapse of bygone centuries, New Smyrna is truly a place of romance and rest.

All nature here is very inviting to the tourist and pleasure-seeker. Here too is to be found the best fishing and hunting in the state of Florida.

The people are thrifty, the business men enterprising and all unite in extending the welcome hand of hospitality to strangers. There are five church edifices for white people and an equal number for the colored population; the town has an excellent high school a splendid public library, aad up-to-date business houses

There are any number of pretty homes for the permanent population, which numbers close to 2,000, and some very fine winter residences. There are good hotels and boarding houses where you can find accommodations to meet your requirements.

Adjoining New Smyrna is as fine a section of vegetable land as can be found anywhere. This land has been divided into small farms which can be bought at reasonable prices. Some of the finest celery grown in the state is raised on this land. All other vegetables grow in abundance, and here, too, is the home of the famous Indian President F. M. Rowe has issued the call for the first meeting of the Daytona board of trade, which will be held at the city hall next Friday evening. It is highly important that every business man and citizen of Daytona should attend this first session of the new civic body to lend a voice in the formation of the bylaws which shall govern the organization in future, and make suggestions as to things that may be accomplished for the good of the city and community. The Daytona board of trade has been given a good start, and, in spite of grumblings from directions that it will never amount to anything and that the interest will soon die out, bids fair to become a good, healthy organization that can and will put Daytona on the map as one of the livest and best cities in W. The Daily News subscription list has expanded this winter until there is scarcely a state or country in Uncle Sam's domain which is not reached by this indispensible family journal and house without it," has become so common as to be almost a stereotyped expression in this print shop. But the limits of the territory reached by the Daily News is not confined to the United States and possessions, several copies going to foreign countries to be read by interested persons. The latest subscription received by the Daily News is from Mrs. Afmina D. Isherwood, Florence, Italy.

The city of Daytona seems to be unusually well filled at this time with certain kinds of fakirs, various brands of beggars and live easy aspirants for abundance in this world's goods and they become so numerous at certain times in the day as to be a nuisance on the busy streets. Some of them are doing a straight 1825-Judge Ebenezer Rockwood Hoar, peddling business and should be compelled to operate under the authority granted by a peddler's license. Some others have no business to be begging on the streets, while still others may be worthy of the aid solicited from the citizens and visitors in Daytona. Whose business is it to investigate these cases and determine who are worthy and who are unworthy? Marshal Gore says he has had no instructions along this line and has no real authority to act on his own initiative. Some these fakirs should be cleaned out and there should be some kind of an executive head to the city to have charge of these things.

STORY OF A LOAM.

A Case Where the Statute of Limits. tions Was Not Considered.

A well known Kansas banker told a story the other day about the statute of limitations. There is a simile in it.

plus some good philosophy. One day an old southerner walked into this banker's office. The south erner was a typical gentleman of the old school, suave, courteous to the point of punctiliousness and honorable to a degree of martyrdom.

"What can I do for you?" asked the

"Well," replied the southerner, about thirty-five years ago I loaned a man down south some money-no; a very big sum. I told him that whenever I should need it I would let him know and he could pay me the money. Does it pay to advertise in the I need some money now, so I shall let him know, and I would like to have you transact the business for me."

"My good friend," replied the bank-R. J. Malby, manager of the Bond er, "you have no claim on that money You say it has been thirty-five years since you loaned it to him? The statute of limitations has run against that loan years and years ago."

"Sir," replied the southerner, "the man to whom I loaned that money is a gentleman. The statute of limita tions never runs against a gentleman." So the banker sent for the money, courtly gentleman at the other end of the transaction also. - Kansas City Journal.

Trees and Wind.

The effect of wind upon trees is powerful. Even the presence or absence of forests may be determined by the character of the prevailing wind or the conditions that modify it. The private yacht, Albert Lea, The wind acts as a drying agent, givdevelopment upon one side. Trees are smaller on the windward edges of forests, and trunks and branches are bent to leeward. The deformations are most marked near the sea or in nut, black poplar, ash and certain pines are very sensitive to the wind. Elmer Oliver made an automobile but mountain pines and certain firs these are recommended for reforesting wind swept lands.

CHABREEZE and DAYTONA BEACH, two enterprising and progressive towns on the Hali-fax Peninsula, are geographically one although incorporated as sepa-rate municipalities. The towns par-allel the peninsula north and south for a distance of from three and one-half to four miles. half to four miles, and extend east and west from the surging seas of the Atlantic Ocean to the Halifax River, the beautiful tide water stream that sets them apart from Daytona with which they have close communion by means of three bridges, as well as a half-hour ferry Seabreeze and Daytona Beach are essentially summer and winter re-sorts and are making hundreds of new friends every year among those who desire to escape the discomforting extremes of heat and cold, and their hotels and boarding houses are now receiving splendid patronage from the most discriminating class of tourists. s of tourists.

The ocean itself, with its marvel ous beach, hard as macadam and smooth as a floor, is the greatest attraction, although earth, air and sky sem to have entered into a combi nation to enhance its every charm. The beach is the famous automobile race course where every world's straight-away record has been made, and all these records it continues to old without rivalr The beach has a width of 300 to 500 feet and can be used from two hours after until two hours before high tide, thus giving an average of seven or eight hours for automobiling some part of each day.

Seabreeze and Daytona Beach each have a permanent population of approximately 1500. Sanitary ordinances are strictly enforced, stree's and sidewalks are well kept, and new streets are being opened as fast as the increasing population demands. Besides hotels and boarding houses there is ample cottage accomodation for all winter visitors in both towns.

All the attractiveness of Seabreeze applies to Daytona Beach, the two towns being so similarly situated. The development of Daytona Beach has been fully as phenominal as its sister on the north, and each year there is a substantial growth. The great sand dunes have been leveled and handsome homes have been built for both winter and all-yearround occupancy.

READER OF THE DAILY NEWS SAYS "MISTAKE" IS AMUSING.

GENERAL PASSENGER AGENT BY OMITTING NAME OF DAYTONA OBTAINS FIRMER GRIP ON HIS POSITION.

Editor News:-On some railroads general passenger agent, who should carelessly (?) omit from time-table the name of the most important station on the line in a distance of over 300 miles, in an edition of 150,000 folders, would be deemed incompetent for his position. But B. C. The very finest specimen of enon the East Coast railroad, with its well-known and ill-concealed antagonism towards Daytona, such action of omitting the name of Daytona from such time-table, will only give such a "careless" official a firmer grip upon his office. And Mr. Rahner's amusing "explanation" makes the matter more plain and ridiculous than it was before. So the people of Daytona are in the position of the Western judge, who was obliged for lack of evidence to discharge a culprit, as "not guilty," and then added with emphasis, "but you must not do it again!!!."

On that memorable . occasion when Henry M. Flagier came here here to decide about locating a projected hotel, he declared in the presence of a prominent gentleman of this city that "Daytona is a place of great possibilities," and it was assumed that he would assist in its development. But early the next morning he almost stole away, and located the hotel at Ormond. And ance" in developing Daytona has not been at all conspicuous except by its absence. And yet Daytona has grown to its present proud position of importance in spite of him-and Ormond remains a very p'easant little village, with his assistance—and the name of Ormond appears in a certain timetable on 150,000 folders, and the name of Daytona is omitted.

Knowing these facts, is it any won- GOOD PLAY, GOOD COMPANY; der that the railroad company continues to maintain "the long yellow barn that is used for a station," for the alleged accommodation of the it is, in some respects a great play. thousands of people who come to Dealing with one of the social prob-Daytona every year—a building lems, as it does, it yet brings out all plenty good enough for cattle, with toilet arrangements unfit for pigs? Oid Engraved Rings.

Among the legends of Greece it is told that the father of Pythagoras, the famous Greek philosopher, was a celebrated engraver of gems, and, according to classical history, both Helen of Troy and Ulysse's of Greece wore engraved rings. Engraving on stones that were partly precious was an art at a very remote age. The British museum proudly boasts the possession of a small square of yellow jusper bearing the figure of a horse and the name and titles of Amenophis II., believed to date back to about the year 1450 graved gem now in existence is a head of Nero carved on a first water diamond by the brothers Castanzi in the year 1790 A. #### Fighting Bulls Are Raised With The Care of Infant Children

The famous fighting bulls of Spain are one of the most interesting fratures of the Angalusian plains. The Spanish bull often has a rather hollow back. His horns are large, rather wide and turned up and inward-never short, very thick and turned downward, as is usually the case with English buils. In his early youth he roams in comparative freedom over the plain. He early makes acquaintance, however, with the garrochista's pic. Though the latter is merely a pole with no blade, but only a small point like a shod end of an alpenstock, it is a formidable weapon when dexterously wielded. When two years old the training of the bull as a fighter is started. The bull is worried and jabbed and thrown down day after day. If the bull after receiving a plentiful succession of nasty jabs which merely inflict flesh wounds and do no serious harm is undismayed and continues to charge as gamely as ever he is considered to have pluck and fire enough to be worthy of the ring. But should he, finding that his charges are fruitless, turn sulky, refuse to charge his opponents and endeavor to fice from them he is branded as cowardly, is fattened and in due time turned into beef.
